Chiaki Mihara: Autorretratos

September 22 – December 2, 2018

Galeria Palácio is pleased to present Autorretratos, Chiaki Mihara's first solo exhibition with the gallery. A series of six concise drawings, produced with oil crayons on linen, are presented.

Influenced by anime culture due to its Japanese descent, in Autorretratos, Chiaki Mihara proposes to the public an introspective confrontation with questions that refer to cultural and identity origins.

The succinct lines of the drawings presented in Autorretratos express to the public the natural essence of drawing of Chiaki Mihara, incorporated into the artist's identity. Transiting between the classic and the modern, the drawings contain a timeless language. Having drawing as its artistic foundation, in Autorretratos, an intimate sense is established to Chiaki Mihara's drawing aesthetics — introducing a synthesis of the artist's production.

Chiaki Mihara (1997, Porto Alegre, Brazil) lives and works in Porto Alegre.
