Chiaki Mihara: Autorretratos

September 22 – December 2, 2018

Galeria Palácio is pleased to present Autorretratos, Chiaki Mihara's first solo exhibition with the gallery. A series of six concise drawings, produced with oil crayons on linen, are presented.

Influenced by anime due to its Japanese descent, in Autorretratos, Chiaki Mihara intrinsically proposes to the public questions that refer to cultural and identity origins.

The succinct lines of the drawings presented in Autorretratos express the natural essence of drawing of Chiaki Mihara, incorporated into the artist's identity. Having drawing as its artistic foundation, in Autorretratos, an intimate sense is established to Chiaki Mihara's drawing aesthetics — introducing a synthesis of the artist's practice.

Chiaki Mihara (1997, Porto Alegre, Brazil) lives and works in Porto Alegre.
